

Adam Parrish

Adam is a professional Pianist, Organist, Musical Director and Composer who regularly tours the UK and abroad. Whilst he is classically trained, his Musical tastes and influences are wide ranging. He has worked with several notable people in the past including Gordon Giltrap, Nicki French (Eurovision) and even Basil brush!

He is now studying for a Masters degree and his RCO associate organ diploma. He currently holds Musical Director positions for a number of theatre organisations and choirs including: Kaleidoscope Players, Brookdale Youth Theatre, Stockport Choral Society and The Smithy Belles Singers. He is also the Organist of St Bartholomew's Church, Chesterfield. Aside from this, he regularly tours the U.K. and abroad both as a soloist and alongside other established artists such as legendary guitarist "Gordon Giltrap". Venues which he has performed in include: The Royal Albert Hall, Blenheim Palace, Union Chapel and Durham Cathedral.

<https://adamparrishmusician.wordpress.com>